

Facilities for Differently Abled Persons at RV University

RV University is committed to providing an inclusive, accessible, and supportive learning environment for differently abled persons. The University provides barrier-free walkways and accessible toilet facilities to ensure ease of movement, convenience, and independent access to campus infrastructure. These facilities are intended to promote the safety, comfort, dignity, and equal participation of students, faculty, staff, and visitors with disabilities in various academic and administrative activities.

